

Monageer-Boolavogue GAA Club – Code of Conduct

(This is the Code of Conduct that was adopted by the club in 2004)

The committee of Monageer-Boolavogue GAA Club shall form a Disciplinary Committee each year to investigate breaches of discipline.

This Disciplinary Committee shall report their findings to the General Club Committee who shall impose any sanction they feel necessary.

Code of Conduct:

1. Notwithstanding the fact that a membership scheme is in operation, the following applies to all persons who are playing members, Committee members or ordinary members of Monageer-Boolavogue GAA Club.
2. All members of Monageer-Boolavogue GAA Club shall show allegiance to the club and make themselves available to their selectors for Team Selection. Any player failing to make themselves available, without good cause, is liable for Disciplinary action.
3. All players are to show proper respect to their Selectors, Officials and fellow Team members.
4. Selectors shall treat all players with dignity and respect at all times.
5. All members shall show a responsible attitude to club property i.e. Pitch, Clubrooms, jerseys, hurleys, balls etc and anybody damaging same shall be liable for disciplinary action.
6. Any Officer, Committee member or member elected to any sub-committee of the club who fails to carry out his functions in an appropriate manner shall be liable for suspension.
7. The property of Monageer-Boolavogue GAA Club shall be used for the promotion of GAA affairs only – except where otherwise sanctioned by the Officers or Committee of the club.
8. Any indiscipline not covered above i.e. 1-7 can be investigated by the Committee.

Notes:

Any member who is accused of failing to uphold the Code of Discipline of the Club shall be entitled to a personal Hearing at the Club Disciplinary Committee.
